Mr. James Matthew Blanding

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

To Mr. Blanding's family. No matter what age a person dies, it still breaks your heart. When we hear people say He lived a good old life. Well it’s not enough. It's not.
Also, it's not selfish to say, "I want you to stay". The bible says, Jehovah put eternity in our mind. We don't ever want to die. I'm sure Mr. Blanding never wanted that either. Death is something we never look forward to, but we know it's going to happen. The words to ease your pain can only come from the bible. Matthew 11:28-30, Jesus says, “Come to me all you who are loaded down . . . I will refresh you”. 2 Corinthians 1:3, 4 Jehovah is the God of all comfort, who WILL comfort us in all our tribulation. Throw your burden, upon him, because he cares for you. Jesus just didn't die, he suffered for us all, so we could live the "real life". Draw comfort in the resurrection hope. We will see Mr. Blanding again. Revelations 21:3-5. Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7. Respectfully submitted. Liz##imported-begin##Liz Malone##imported-end##

To my Other Family,

Thank You for sharing James with me, I felt like he was my father at times, and I will always cherish the lessons that he instilled in me, I was honored that he thought highly of me, and I will miss our conversations, James was a Man's man! If he said it, he meant it. June, Kim, Rick, and Mike, continue to hold on to each other during this time of duress and sorrow.

Dear Family: May I send my condolences to Mr. Blanding's family and friends in this time of loss. May you draw comfort from God's word the Bible when it says: "The hour is coming when all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out.." (John 5:28) Yes, death will be destroyed (1Corinthians 15:26) and suffering and pain will be no more (Revelation 21:4) This is God's promise to us, soon to come true. (Titus 1:2) My Deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
