May you find peace and comfort in knowing that God has called home another one of His children. We're all going to miss Evelyn but we'll find joy in knowing that one day we'll see her again. She's happier now than she's ever been because she is with the Lord and so many other family members and friends that have gone before us. I as so sorry that I am unable to be there in your time of need but know that my heart is filled with love for all of you. May God's love keep you now and forever. Praise His holy name!##imported-begin##Carol Mattox##imported-end##

Even though we can't be with you right now, our hearts ache with yours. As has happened untold times in history, we have lost our matriarch. Somehow this time seems different though because this one is ours.

Though our hearts are burdened right now, think of the rejoicing that must be going on in our father's house as those Waters girls welcome Evelyn home.

Be strong and keep your faith in God to see you through these tough times. He's the only one who can help us now.##imported-begin##Milton L. and Randi Clowers##imported-end##

From Huck (Charles), Jane, Milo, Brittany and Tiffany Tellis Seattle WA. Thank you auntie for bringing us warmth and joy and for instilling in us the value of family. Your spirit of love, strength and benevolence will live on in each of us as we honor your desire for the Waters family: That we unite "annually" to promote a sense unity and love. May the Angels rejoice!
God Bless##imported-begin##Charles Tellis##imported-end##
