Mr. Lonnie Bennett

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

Dear Bennett family please accept this post as my expression of sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Mr. Lonnie. I am writing to you about the bibles wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The bibles clear teaching removes all confusion about what happens to us at the time of death. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he said at (Job 14:14)"If an able man dies, can he live again..." This is a hope that is held out to all mankind, including Mr. Lonnie. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

May the hope of Psalms 34:18 bring the Bennett family much comfort during this time, God's word assures us that he sees the difficulties and hard times that we go through. He will help you and your family in this time of sorrow. We can also look forward to a time when death will be no more (Revelation 21: 3, 4). Taking in accurate knowledge of the living God Jehovah assures us better times ahead.##imported-begin##Ariel##imported-end##

I just want to encourage the family and let you know that you are in my thoughts and prayers. Deacon Bennett was such a joy to be around. I will miss his loving/gentle smile. I will miss his profound voice. He would often lend us his voice in our Christmas plays as the voice of God. It is going to be be hard to attend our Sunday School teacher's meeting tonight and not see Deacon Bennett's face. He is truly going to be missed.##imported-begin##Stacy McCloud##imported-end##

I was so sorry to read of the lost of your dear loved one.
It seems so unfair that death should have the power to take away someone we love.
And when it happens, the thought of never again being able to talk, to laugh with, or hold your loved one can be most difficult to bear.
Many are resting now, until their name is called in the "resurrection".
Oh yes, Jesus Christ boldly promised: "The hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his [Jesus'] voice and come out." (John 5:21, 28, 29)
Since Jesus made the promise, it is safe to assume that he is willing and able to do so. His father, Almighty God has promised us at Revelation 21:4, "he will wipe out every tear from their eyes and Death will be no more....."
May you find comfort and faith in these scriptures for he "cannot lie." (Titus1:2)##imported-begin##Dorothy Carroll##imported-end##

I'm still in shock because i saw Deacon Bennett on Sunday, May 13, 2012. I spoke with him briefly, shook his hand, and it was the last time we would talk. He was a good man a I feel better having known Deacon Bennett. I hope God will extend peace to his family##imported-begin##James W. Sterling##imported-end##

Dear Family: It breaks our hearts when death separates us from our loved ones, no matter how young or how old they may happen to be. However, we are reminded in the Bible that there is One who sees our distress and pain and has promised that soon death will be done away with...swallowed up forever! (Isaiah 25:8) He will heal our broken hearts by resurrecting our precious loved ones to life again. (John 5:28,29) I hope in the days ahead as you reflect on the life of your loved one, Mr. Lonnie, and the precious memories he left you, that you will also find much comfort and reasurrance in Jehovah God's promises to us for the near future for they will not fail to come true (Titus 1:2) My deepest sympathy to##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
