Dear Family: May I offer my sincere condolences on the death of your loved one, Doretha. It's difficult most times to find words to comfort someone who has lost a dear loved one. Inside our hearts hurt too. What words can one say to comfort you and ease the pain in your hearts? I've found great comfort from reading Jesus' words at John 5:28,29, where he promises to resurrect those who have died. Also, Revelation 21:4 where our Loving Heavenly Father has promised that soon death will be no more. In fact, anything causing us mourning, outcry, tears or pain will done away with. May your hearts find peace and comfort in the days ahead knowing that our Loving God will truly keep his word to us and all that he has promised will come true. (Titus 1:2). My deepest sympathy to you.##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##

Doretha was a very close friend of my parents and me. She was always full of joy and there for me, though I was miles away from her and my immediate family. I'm missing her now but know that she's with God's grace.##imported-begin##Michele Clark##imported-end##

A light has gone out in this world, but a luminous Spirit lives on eternally. Doretha's warmth and friendliness and inner beauty will always be remembered. She was a blessing to so many.##imported-begin##Pamela Collins##imported-end##

Doretha had a million dollar smile.... When she walked into a room, she absolutely lit it up! I can not believe that she is gone, the world seems a sadder, colder place without Doretha and I will miss her.##imported-begin##Andrea Hartman##imported-end##
