I am so very sorry to read of your loss. When we suffer a loss we often feel helpless and alone, I know I did. What I found comforting was encouraging words for Jehovah found at Revelation 21:3, 4.##imported-begin##sf##imported-end##

I've only known Frances for a few years but she was one of the most delightful people I've ever met. She had a way of making you feel special. She was hard working and spoke highly of her children. It was truly my pleasure to have known her. My heartfelt sympathy goes out to her children and I hope they find peace as we know their mother has. God will take the lead and watch over her now.##imported-begin##Lydia Grubb##imported-end##

Dear James, Vivian, Angela, Brenda & The Johnson Family,

Our heartfelt condolences to you and your family. Your mother was like a second mom to all of us growing up on Birwood. She was a great person and we will all miss her dearly. Let the good memories give you some comfort at this time of sorrow. If there is any thing we can do please do not hesitate to call. May God who created all things look down in Love and Compassion and fold His loving arms around you and strengthen you and your family. Our thoughts and prayers are with you. Peace and love always.

I'm sending my sincere condolences to each of you. We have all experienced the loss of a loved one to the enemy death, and the emotional pain is all the same. Our Heavenly Father feels the pain that you are going through. He holds out a promise that one day soon he will wipe all tears of sorrow from our eyes forever and death will be no more (Revelation 21:3-5) Additionally, He promises that all those in the memorial tombs (graves) will hear His voice and come out.
