To the Washington family, please accept my sincere condolence. May you find comfort thru the Word of God. Jesus says, "Do not marvel at this, the hour is coming in which all those in the memorial tombs will hear his voice and come out those that did good things to a resurrection of life..."-John 5:28,29.##imported-begin##Mrs. Coleman##imported-end##

I pray that you will be strengthen, with courage to bear the pain that now fills your heart. Throw your burden upon our Grand Creator, he cares for you. Even Jesus reassures us, Luke 23:43 - "You will be with me in paradise". There were many Jesus resurrected, while alive on earth. That was a fore gleam of the grand resurrection, soon to be. Revelations 21:3-5 Isaiah 26:19, Proverbs 3:5-7.##imported-begin##Nrs. Malone##imported-end##

Dear Washington family, please accept my deepest sympathy over the loss of your dear loved one, Ms. Mattie Mae. I am writing to you about the bibles wonderful hope of a future resurrection. The wise man Job expressed his hope this way when he asked at (Job 14:14)"If an able body man dies, can he live again. This hope is held out to all mankind, including Ms. Mattie Mae. May the God of tender mercy be a source of comfort to you during your time of bereavement.##imported-begin##Jackie Brezzell##imported-end##

Dear Family: It is not easy to endure the death of a loved one and it can be quite a challenge to move on without them in our lives. Although it may be hard to contemplate or even envision at present, still, Our Loving God has comforted us. He promised that soon he will 'wipe the tears from all faces and 'death will be no more (Revelation 21:4; Isaiah 25:8). Not only that, but he also promises to resurrect our loved ones who have died, including your precious one, Mattie Mae.(John 5:28,29) May these Scriptural truths help to lessen the pain in your hearts today and in the days ahead knowing our Father will do all that he has promised, for he cannot lie (Titus 1:2; Psalm 83:18).##imported-begin##joyce jones##imported-end##
