“ In salute of Freddie Boggues-Lawrence

To a wonderful and caring sister, aunt, cousin and so much more. She loved life and loved her family. Her passion for her sisters and cosmetics was part of her special talent. She has inspired her sisters and nieces and other young women with her special flare for cosmetics and fashion.

Freddie was a special sister to Teddy Boggues. A twin sister. They developed a special relationship from being born together in Knoxville, Tennessee and moving to Detroit, Michigan in 1957 with their other siblings and Mother, Lovie Boggues. Teddy Boggues has always been there to support his sister and his love is everlasting.

Freddie was a sister-in-law to Patrica Boggues. Patricia developed a friendship with Freddie in 1967 when she moved from Logan, West Virginia to Detroit, Michigan with her Mother, Ruby Brown. She was more than a sister-in-law, she was a friend. The support with her husband for Freddie in good and bad times was always sincere. She appreciates the time they spent together as family.

Freddie is my fun and glamorous aunt. We shared so many nice family memories. The Saturdays me and my father visited Grandmother Boggues were special. The way she talked had fun with all of us was special. The teenage years with her mentoring Faustine and Ambre are special and so heartfelt. They are a welcome addition to our family. Then, the holidays and other special events we shared in the 1990s, 2000s and 2010s. So many special memories that families have together.

We will always love you Freddie. Sister, Aunt, Cousin, Mentor / Mother , Friend and so much more.

Sincerely with love,

Teddy Boggues (Brother), Patricia Boggues (Friend / Sister-in-Law), Ted Boggues, Jr (Nephew) and Michele Young-Boggues (Niece-in-Law)
