

Mr. Timothy Cordail Dove

July 4, 1957 - December 9, 2018

His Story:

Timothy Cordail Dove was born on July 4, 1957 in Detroit, Michigan to Louvenia Key-Dove and James Dove Jr., who preceded him in death.

Timothy Dove accepted Christ at an early age. He attended Kettering High School in Detroit, Michigan.

Timmy was the oldest of five children. He valued being the protector of his younger brothers and made sure everyone knew he was the BIG brother.

Throughout his years, Timmy became a very skilled carpenter which led him to build his own successful cleaning company, Dove's Cleaning Service, in Chicago, Illinois. Timmy later moved back to Detroit, Michigan where he continued his meticulous skills in carpentry and home improvement.

Timmy was charismatic, he never met a stranger. After talking with him, others felt special or like you were his long-time friend. Timmy was very reliable in helping others and giving advice to help people on their journey.

Timmy enjoyed being physically fit and loved jazz. Many people complimented him on his taste in fancy cars.

Timmy was well pleased with the success of his children and he adored being a grandfather.

Timothy Dove departed this life on December 9, 2018.

“ Tim was a hardworking man in his crafts. Anything you needed to be done around the house he was the man to call. This past summer Tim and his crew tore up my ceramic floor and laid down wood flooring. a job I admires everyday. At the time he was battling illnesses but he persevered and finished the job. Rest om my friend ,rest on. My prayers and condolences goes out to family and friends that are impacted by this great loss. Elder
