“ To my family, I want to send my prayers and love at this time of sorrow. Rev. Kincannon or better know to me as cousin Abe will be greatly missed. I can still see him sitting on his porch as I was driving through the neighborhood and would stop and visit no matter what I was about to do. He would always say " Girl stop by anytime". He has now taken his seat on an even greater porch with our Lord and Savior. Be blessed and know you will always be loved. Felicia Westbrook

“ Reverend Kincannon, I will always remember our talks on the way to Unity. I would need to get to choir rehearsal and you would volunteer to help me get there and when my Mom offered gas money you would smile and tell her next time. Of course next time never came. You talked me about the word of God in a way that I could feel comfortable with. When I had questions you answered with patience. In the second part of my senior year of high school my Dad had two Massive Stroke and we were told to say good bye. You comforted me and helped me learn about the power of Prayer. My Dad was in the hospital when I graduated and could not be there with me. You talked to me at church that Sunday and assured me of how proud he was of me. Thank God the Lord brought Dad home and I felt like I was Blessed to have a spiritual God father that God added to my life. I will always remember your calming voice and the warmth it provided. I will love you Always. Take your Rest In Paradise and I will be there. Mrs. Kincannon and the Kincannon Family, Thank you for sharing him with so many. You are in my thoughts and Prayers and I love you all.

“ I thank God for Rev. Abe Kincannon, Jr., a true man of God. I was a member of Unity Baptist Church under the anointed and loving leadership of Rev. Dr. Valmon D. Stotts, my spiritual dad, from 1988 to 2000. Rev. Kincannon was serving on the ministerial staff. I witnessed a loving, caring, and respectful relationship from these men of God who loved the Lord Jesus and the people of God! I wish to extend my heartfelt condolences to the family and please know that the Love and Comfort of the Holy Spirit surrounds you. I will certainly keep you all in my prayers. God bless you all!
