August 25, 1929 - January 25, 2017

Celebrating The Life Of Addie Rene Coleman:

Addie R. Coleman was born to Alfred Crum Sr. and Cleasianna in Council, Alabama. She also attended school there.

Addie met and married Jimmie Lee Coleman (he preceded her in death) and to this union was born 13 children.

She gave her life to Christ at a young age where she worked faithfully for the Lord. She later joined Triumph the Church and Kingdom of God in Christ and continued to work diligently. She was Shepherd Mother of the church and loved to sing. She had many duties in the church. She later became an evangelist and continued to pray for and be of help to others because she truly loved the Lord.

Addie worked in health care for many years because she loved helping people, she loved to laugh and smile, and what a beautiful smile she had. She also loved to take pictures, cook and make sure everybody was happy.

Addie had a long bout with illness and received her wings on January 25, 2017.
