

Mrs. Addie Lee Stubbs

September 17, 1928 - March 11, 2015

Her Journey:

Addie Lee Baker-Stubbs was born September 17, 1928 in Madison, Mississippi to the late Lee Samuel Jones and Wineva Jones. She was the third oldest of seven children, in which four preceded her in death, Leroy Jones, Juanita Jones-Barnes, Lee Samuel Jones, Johnnie Lee Jones and two surviving, sisters Elizabeth Wilson and Catherine Arnold (Sylvester Arnold). As an older sibling, she tended the farms.

Addie accepted Christ at a young age where she was a member of the Rocky Hill Baptist Church in Madison, Mississippi.

Within her first union, she gave birth to her first four children Rosie Jones-Turner, Joe Henry Jones (deceased), Addie Bee Jones Williams, and Eddie Lee Jones (Theresa).

In 1952, Addie met and married her husband David Dan Baker (deceased) and moved to Detroit, Michigan. She added ten more children under this union, in which four preceded her in death; David Baker, Charles Baker, Raymond Baker, Ronnie Baker and surviving children Everlena Smith (Henry), Anthony Baker (Tonda), Tyrone Baker, Saronta Baker, Carnell Baker, Andre Baker, and Linda Brown (cousin).

Addie joined the Church of the Living God Temple #69 in 1966. She was very active serving as a Missionary for the sick and shut-in and also served as a member of the choir. She raised all of her children and grandchildren in the church.

She was very outspoken, giving, loving, caring, and supportive. Her hobbies consisted of cooking and gardening. She had a passion for cooking. She would feed any and every one.

After the passing of her husband David, she met her late husband Charles Stubbs in 1997. Mr. Stubbs preceded her in death. Shortly after, Addie was diagnosed with breast cancer, after treatment she became a survivor for over six years. Recently she went into remission.
