"Michael" was always, always a strong, quite presence. Keenly intelligent. Gentle. Really smart and always, always kind. Family, I send my deepest condolences. I know you will miss him, but you, all of us, were fortunate to have had him for the time we did.

My Dear Cousin, what a joy and blessing to have known and love you. I too will remember those days of working downtown and seeing you approaching a mile away. Your statute was undeniable. I would smile every time I saw you coming because I could tell that you were in deep thought and wouldn't recognize me like I recognize you. Once you got closer I would holler/sing your name and you would break out in a grin. He always said, I knew it was one of my cousins/Clyburns because you guys are the only ones that call me Michael. Life is so short, wish that we could have spent more quality time together. Deepest sympathy to your Son, til we meet again, Rest easy Cousin.
