“ My heart goes out to my sister, Yvonne, and condolences to the entire family for the loss of Big Dad Wells. He was always so kind and supportive of my sons and I. He always greeted us like family, which meant so much to me. An excellent example of a father, and I'm blessed to have known him.

Rest well, Mr. Wells. You will always be remembered fondly for your keen sense of style, humor and the way you showed up for those you loved.

*With all my heart,
Sarina Fulgiam Bias and Family*

“ Though We may not share direct genetic bloodlines, we do share something stronger...A bond of friendship, brotherhood, respect and a relationship of the heart professionally and personally for over 50 years.

What words cannot say, the mind and heart will cherish as a memory.

The Family of The Detroit Fire Department is a better place because of Captain Albert Wells.

“ My Dear Cousin will always be remembered for his kindness and support. When we moved to Detroit in 1986, he welcomed us into his home and assisted us with finding adequate housing. Then he helped us move in and learn the city. He constantly checked in on us and he soon became our Uncle Albert. I will miss my Dear Cousin but will be comforted in knowing that God is calling my Uncle Albert home because his work down here is done and he can take his rest in heaven with Uncle Jay and Aunt Mable. I thank God for blessing me with my beloved Uncle Albert.

“ Deacon Albert Wells, of New Hope Missionary Baptist Church, Southfield Michigan. I am going to miss Deacon Wells. He had a smile that would make you smile with him. He definitely was a true Deacon. When I had surgery, a few years ago, Deacon Wells and his lovely wife Deaconess Mamie Wells would call me at least once a week to see how I was doing and if I needed anything. They represented the true meaning of two spirits working together as one. My sincere condolences to the Wells family.
