

Mrs. Alberta Jane Cammack

June 30, 1947 - February 18, 2015

In Loving Memory Of Alberta Jane Cammack:

On Wednesday afternoon February 18, 2015 the angel of silence came to Alberta Jane Cammack. Her soul winged its flight from this world of sin, sorrow and pain to a place of eternal rest. It was God's will that she must go. Her time had come and the assurance of a better home was made possible through the word of God.

Alberta was born June 30, 1947 to the proud parents, mother Cecelia Terry and father Hardy Terry. She was a native of Detroit and a resident of Detroit, Michigan for 36 years. She graduated at Glendale High School in Cleveland, Ohio. In her lifetime she worked at Mr. Coffee as a coffee maker also in Cleveland, Ohio at a tire company that made tires and also worked at Stouffer's in Henry Ford, retired from Tech Color. In her spare time she liked doing crafting and going bowling.

“ Burt you will be missed by me and my family. we were thick as thieves back in the day. I traveled back and forth with you, Micheal, Keith, keisha, and mikey (animal). I will miss you but I know that you are in a better place now, but one of my fondest memories is when you use come over an we would sing on the karaoke, DJ was singing and you were acting like you fainted and hit your chin on the table. We laughed until you got up and we bandaged you right on up. I thank you for accepting me and my son into your family. We will always remain family. I love you and miss you.

“ May Jehovah be with you to comfort you and lift you up. This is a very sad time. You are all in my thoughts and prayers. I pray for the time when death will lose its victory over us, and the resurrection will reunite us with our loved ones. We will say to our Grand Creator, ‘You are my refuge and my stronghold, my God, in whom I will trust.’— Psalm 91:2. The words of Jesus have deep meaning for us today. ‘I am the resurrection and the life. The one who exercises faith in me, even though he dies, will come to life; John 11:25, 26.

Well Auntie, we spoke on the phone just a few days ago about our plans for the summer, and it won't happen, but we did share with each other our love!

You were not just my Auntie, but a dear friend to my mother. I still remember your surprise visit to her at a time when your health wasn't the greatest.

I share today my love with Mike and Keith and your grand children as well as other family. Thanks be to God that you always knew that you had some nephews in Austin Texas that loved you!

I will sing a verse of the song we sang the last time we were together at your home going service today, but we didn't sing it for the last time before. Mommy and you will get to sing with ole Theo again when we get into the great city together!

I love you Auntie Alberta, and thanks for being such a light of love in our lives! Your nephews, Theo, Charley, Derwyn, Tason, and Tommy!
