

Mrs. Albertha Smith

November 9, 1924 - November 12, 2014

Celebrating The Life Of Albertha Smith:

Albertha Brown was born on November 9, 1924 in Fordyce, Arkansas to the late Arthur H. and Sallie Brown. She was the oldest of three children. The family moved to Elyria, Ohio when she was five years old and later relocated to Detroit, Michigan in the early 1930's.

Albertha attended and graduated from the Detroit Public School system. She lived a full and rich life and enjoyed living life to the fullest on her own terms. She was a housewife and mother to her three children (Sally, Cynthia and Cheryl).

Albertha was married to the late Ralph H. Smith who passed away on July 24, 1994.

Albertha peacefully departed this life on Wednesday afternoon, November 12, 2014 at the Evergreen Health and Living Center in Southfield, Michigan.

Albertha was united with the church at an early age in Highland Park, Michigan. She was a member of Thompson Avenue Baptist Church in Highland Park and later joined Hartford Memorial Baptist Church in Detroit. She served as a long term member in good standing at Hartford Memorial Baptist Church. Albertha was a generous and God loving woman that cared deeply about her family, church and neighbors.
