

Mr. Alfred Lynce Freeman

June 25, 1956 - September 10, 2015

A Home Going Service for Alfred "Slick Rick" Freeman:

"I have fought a good fight, I have finished my course, I have kept the faith."

-II Timothy 4:7

A Time to be Born – Alfred “Slick Rick” Freeman was the seventh child born to James Arthur and Viola Freeman on June 25, 1956, in Phenix City, AL. His father James; and three sisters, Josie Mae Freeman-Williams, Theresa Stewart and Ronda Freeman-Porter; and one brother William Freeman preceded him in death.

A Time to Grow – Ricky attended the Phenix City Public School System until he received his G.E.D and entered the armed services, where he was given an honorable discharge.

A Time to Celebrate- Ricky was known for his love of sports, trivia, and music. His favorite musician was Rick James, whose concert he attended at Chene Park. Slick Rick knew every move that Rick James was going to make and he performed along with him throughout the concert.

A Time to Love – Although Ricky did not have any children of his own, he shared a special bond with each of his nieces and nephews. He was extremely close to his mother and his siblings, and he loved his brothers and sisters in Christ at St. Phillips Missionary Baptist Church, where he was an honorary church greeter.

A Time to Serve – Ricky accepted Christ at an early age and was baptized at Central Baptist Church. When he moved to Detroit, he became a member of St. Phillips Missionary Baptist Church where he was a faithful member until his transition.

A Time to Die – On Thursday, September 10, 2015, at approximately 3:30 a.m., in Sinai Grace Hospital, Ricky's spirit departed this life and went back to the Lord.
