“ Hello, I am sorry for your loss and wish I was able to meet this man- I believe he may be related. I am not sure but I think Alfred Shelby was my dad's brother- late William Terrance Shelby that lived in California. if I am mistaken please forgive me. I too lost my dad 10yrs ago and miss him. I live in California and my aunt Shirlee, wife of Guy Sullivan told me about a brother Alfred Derrick Shelby- by the way, Derrick is my grandfathers' name - that is why I feel it could be the same person. If I am correct email me.... Myles39@comcast.net. I guess I am reaching.

*God bless,

“ Sheila and family, I am sending you all my condolence upon hearing that your Dad; the Shelby Family Patriarch, made his transition. Know that my prayers are with you at this time as I can't be there in person. May you continue to be strengthened and embraced by God's unfailing love in the days ahead. Deborah Hodge-Morgan

“ Dear Cousins,

So many warm and fond memories of Uncle Alfred and Aunt Hattye!!! He always had a funny joke and something to teach us. I fondly recall the apple pie Aunt Hattye baked from discarded apples Uncle Alfred retrieved from the grocer. He also found a crispy $20.00 bill that day, prior to my interview for Residency. He said I brought him good luck. We can never miss the one's we LOVE. THEY ARE ALWAYS WITH US; WE CARRY THEM IN OUR HEARTS!!!

With Much LOVE,
