“ My amazing, wonderful, crazy, loving father-in-law, I will miss the visits we had, I will also miss your laughter, your wisdom and your hugs. They say behind every good man is a good woman, and you taught me that its not "behind" it's "BESIDE".

Pops, if it wasn't for you, I would never have the greatest joys of my life, Thank you for trusting me with 1 of your greatest treasures! I promise, that I will continue to take of your beautify, wonderful, amazing daughter. I will always love and miss you pops, “ Gandpa! A man of a few words but those few words were of great substance. I heard someone say that and it just made since. You meant so much to so many. A fiend, cousin, uncle, confidant, hero, Grandfather, father the list goes on. You are deeply missed, you always will be. I wish we had more time. I fel guilty saying this because I know you are In heaven shining your light on us. Please watch over us and know that I will always love you!! (Ashly)

“ My dearest father, I don't know how to process not being able to hear your voice. You were my rock, my strength and my voice of reason and now you are my Angel. There are so many beautiful memories but the one that I will share is you always ended every conversation by saying " I love you , bye for now".
Dad I love you and bye for now my Angel.💕💕

“ Our hearts go out to the entire sledge Family. Although we never met him we can see his love abound in how he touched others. Tina and Vern are prime examples of that unconditional love he offered and they now offer to us.

“ I once heard someone say, "When a parent dies, you lose the past. When a child dies, you lose the future. When a sibling dies, you lose the past and the future. That is the grief of a sibling - grief for what was past, and grief for what should have been in the future.

A wish and a prayer dear Al. May your spirit soar in freedom. You are still in our hearts and minds.
