“ Mrs. Alice M. Burton

“ I will always remember the summer of 1968 when my sister and I visited for the first time. As two teenage girls we were looking forward to visiting the big city then the riots broke out. We couldn't do anything but stay at home. Your mom made sure we stayed safe and busy, we were grateful. Your mom was my mom's niece but they were more like sisters, she will be greatly missed.

All though no words can really help ease the loss you bear, just know that you are very close in every though and prayer. I am the resurrection, an the life: he that believeth in me, though he where dead, yet shell he live: And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die. Believest thou this?
