

Mrs. Alice Marie Grady - Slaughter

January 16, 1951 - October 19, 2020

In Loving Memory Of:

Alice Marie Grady Slaughter was born on January 16, 1951 to John Henry and Marie Grady.

Alice attended Detroit Public Schools, graduated from Kettering High School at the age of 16 in January 1968. She then enrolled in Detroit Business Institute, completing 2 years with her Associate Degree. She then served 26 years with Bell Broadcasting systems as a traffic manager.

While becoming a single parent in 1975 with her only child Davina Renee Grady, Alice met her soul mate and devoted husband for 33 years Robert Lee Slaughter, then married on June 20, 1985 in Toledo, Ohio.

She followed to transition on to a new career path with Detroit Receiving Hospital as a Registration Clerk for 10 years. She then retired and became a devoted wife and mother for her family.

Alice enjoyed becoming a homebody and dressing fabulous for casino outings and bingo. She enjoyed cooking all of her favorite recipes. Especially for her fur babies AJ, Sasha, and Rocky.

Alice always welcomed friends and family to her home to eat and socialize. Her special favorite was making popcorn and watching favorite television shows.

Alice transitioned this earthly life on Monday, October 19, 2020 at 11:50 a.m. at Beaumont Hospital of Oakwood. Alice had made her peace prior to her illness during her life from a broken heart from the death of her late husband.

Alice held on to a strong fight surrounded by her only child, two grandchildren and sisters.
