“ Our sincerest and deepest sympathy is with you at this difficult time. My family just found out about the death of your mother and our dear friend Alice Faye.

She was a wonderful woman. We met her many years ago at Chapel Hill Missionary Baptist Church under the leadership of your grandfather, Rev. Roy A. Allen, Sr. Her beautiful voice may be forever silent, but her wonderful personality will forever live on in our hearts.

Sincerely,

The Gordon Family (Jesse, Eleanor, Cora and Rosie)

“ I joined the Inspirational Choir at Joy United Church of Christ in the late '70s. Not only was Sister Alice a gifted musician and singer but a great teacher and motivator as well. She taught us items about music, singing and proper annunciation that stick to the present day. She exposed us to different artists and venues that we would never have access to on our own. We love you, Sister Alice, and you will be missed. Glenn Allen Goff

The inevitable risk of loving someone is the pain that is felt when that person's life comes to an end. Sis. Alice Faye Lloyd was a person who I came to know and love over the years. The joys, sorrows, fellowship, worship experiences, prayers, and songs of praise we shared enabled me to know her as the special saint she was. The encouragement and support she expressed to my wife as she went through her treatment is indicative of her compassion and selflessness. We take comfort in the hope that we have in our Lord Jesus Christ and the knowledge that the God of all comfort will sustain us until we join her in heaven, We pray that the peace and comfort that only God Almighty can give will abide with Rev. Lloyd, his family, and the many friends that mourn in this season of sorrow.

"Precious in the sight of the Lord is the death of his saints."

“ Dear Joe,

I was very saddened to learn of my dear friend and colleague Alice's passing. I will always remember her wonderful spirit of music making, pleasant smile and fashionable attire that she always presented! She was an effervescent delight and a testament to living a full life.

My prayers are with you all during this time of bereavement. Know that He is the source of our strength and the strength of our lives, so we give Him "Total Praise" for it all!

Be blessed,

John Massenburg

“ To the Family of Mrs. Alice Lloyd,

I send my deepest sympathy for the loss of a wonderful woman. Mrs. Lloyd graced my life with her poise, wisdom, and passion for music, and I am so humbled and blessed to have been taught by such an amazing woman. She loved me like I was one of her own, and through the countless experiences she provided me with at King High, I will be forever grateful. Thank you for sharing her with me. May you seek comfort in the Lord, and know that heaven has truly gained an angel blessed by God.

May God Bless and Keep You,

Mrs. Brandon Winters-Sterling

“ *Dear Alice: Since 1972 we shared a birthday, a wonderful lasting friendship and sisterly love. I could always count on you to say the right words. We shared many good times together, and times when we had to cry and pray our way through them. I know God placed you in my life at the right time. at the right place, You will always have a special place in my heart.. Until we meet again!! - Love always “ Mrs. Alice Faye Lloyd, the love of my life, went home to be with the LORD early on Thursday morning, January 22. My pain is heaven's gain. She was the best wife in the universe to one of the worse husbands in the universe. like GOD, she loved me in spite of my flaws. I often preached about how we who claim to be Christians ought to imitate the love of God. Through HIS grace and mercy, God loves all of us in spite of our flaws. she listened and pulled it off to my benefit.

Thank you, Mrs. Baby!!! I told you more often than you wanted to hear that I didn't want to live without you. Now I'm praying that GOD will reunite us soon. I still love you very much. Thanks for making me happier than I ever could have been if you had not agreed to become "Mrs. Joseph Earle Lloyd" - a name you happily embraced.

To the Lloyd family. We all love Sis Alice and her music so much that it's hard to see her go. But God loves her more and wanted her home. She has now join His heavenly choir. She will be truly missed.

“ Hello family,

You had someone special in your life that you unselfishly shared with others and that was Alice. She has touched many lives through singing and her warm smile. She will truly be missed. Rev. Lloyd, thanks for sharing this beautiful lady with us, my hats off to you!!!!!!!!!!!!!!

Some of the ways I remember Alice are listed below.

- Alice and I worked at Martin Luther King, Jr., Senior High School together.*
- She was also my child's music teacher.*
- Alice, my daughter and I travelled to Ghana, Accra as the choir song for the village in Africa.*
- She and I had many talks and laughter together; she then gave me a nickname that I will never forget.*
- To show my support, I had the privilege to travel from church to church with she and the choir.*
- I had a great time with her as she retired from the School system.*

What a giant we will miss, but we will see her again.

Family, weeping may endure for a night, but joy cometh in the morning. I just recently loss my mother and it's not easy, and I found it to be true that God will send a comforter.

Hang in there and continue to trust God.

To Rev and Family: Mrs. Lloyd gave me the title of her other son. She and Rev trusted me with the up keep of their home. She always liked the finer things that this world had to offer. As i got to know her thru the years that was always my intent to give her the best my talent could offer. Thank you for so many years of God spirited conversations. I will miss you tell the Lord call me to my resting place.
