Going Home Celebration For Alice Laverne Lott:

Mrs. Alice Laverne Lott was born on December 23, 1941 to Henry and Berma Turner Forrest of Holmesville (Tylertown), Mississippi. She was fourth of seven children.

Alice was called home on October 30, 2014, at Lorraine's House, assisted living facility. Alice grew up farming in Tylertown. Despite coming from humble beginnings, having to do farm chores before and after school and, illnesses in her youth, Alice was determined to get an education. She graduated from high school went on to graduate from Tougaloo College and earned a Masters Degree from Wayne State University. Alice loved to teach as much as she loved to learn. During her career, as well as personal life, she taught and was a role model to hundreds of children some of them in the church today.

While in college she met a young man, Johnnie Johnson, whom she fell in love with and married. Alice and Johnnie moved to Detroit and along came a beloved son, Jevon Johnson, whom they lovingly called "Mikie." Johnnie preceded her to heaven.

After teaching in Jackson, MS for a few years, Alice was a Detroit Public School Science Teacher, for over 20 years and then School Administrator, for ten more. Alice was a member of Hartford Memorial Baptist Church for many years. After leaving DPS she was called to help several charter schools set up their curriculums and operations and, was a Professor at Wayne State University. In 1986 she married James Lott. She and James, Jim as she called him with affection, were devoted to each other for 28 years. To the family, Jim brought his son Eugene, his daughter Yolonda and his youngest son Alfred. Alice and Jim enjoyed, their home, long drives, spending time up north and Jim's love of cars. Alice also loved to cook, bake and sew. Alice and Jim truly loved each other and were partners in life. They honored their vows of love and commitment to the very end when Alice went home to be with God and the rest of her family.

“ To the Family of Alice Lott

Alice was a woman of character. She exuded a peace and quiet strength that makes one say, "I want to be like her"! She made me feel like no matter what happened in my life; she was there for me. I felt that Alice was there for many, as long as she could be. She was indeed loved by my family, and I experienced her love and kindness. It's that quiet strength that she had, that I will remember. I will also take her smile and how her eyes would light up. Rest well, sweet Alice, until we meet again. May her family feel comfort and peace in the days ahead. She will be greatly missed! Love to the family! Joyce Flood (neighbor).

“ To every thing there is a season, and a time to every purpose under the heaven: A time to be born, and a time to pluck up that which is planted; We may have plans to achieve certain goals, but what we seek to day may not be harmony with God's season for us. We must not despair, for kept in the Timekeeper's hand is a season when we shall experience all that he has preordained for us.

To my family we all must hold on to God unchanging hand, weeping may endureth for a night but Joy will cometh in the morning.
