

Mr. Allen Ray Davis

October 6, 1948 - April 8, 2015

His Journey:

Allen Ray Davis, affectionately known as “Aldo,” was born October 6, 1948 in Poplarville, Mississippi to Allen and Dollie Davis.

Allen accepted Christ at an early age. Allen attended the Detroit Public School system. He graduated from Southeastern High School in 1966. After high school, Allen joined the United States Army where he received many decoration medals and commendations such as the Vietnam Service Medal (VSM), Vietnam Campaign Medal (VCM), Valorous Unit Award (VUA), Army Commendation Medal (ARCOM) and three overseas service bars. He received an honorable discharge in 1973.

Allen was employed with the United States Post Office for 30+ years in the maintenance department until his retirement in October 2009.

Allen enjoyed fishing, baseball and long walks. He enjoyed cooking most of all. He was not afraid to try new and exciting dishes. He lived alone but when he cooked, you would think it was 15 people in the house. He never quite figured out how to make small meals.

Allen also had a fascination with electronics and the newest and best cooking accessories. It could be said that Allen kept QVC in business. We are sure

QVC will miss him as much as we will.

Allen departed this life April 8, 2015.
