

Mrs. Alma Louise Causey

May 19, 1930 - June 7, 2016

Celebrating The Life Of Alma Louise Causey:

Alma was born on May 19, 1930 in Comer, Georgia, to J. Shelly and Georgia Barnett. The family eventually relocated to Detroit, MI, where Alma would spend her life.

Alma married Griffin Causey on February 4, 1948, and was married for 39 years until Griffin's untimely death. From this union they had two children Kvena and Sybil.

Alma attended dog-grooming school, and later took on a job as a professional groomer, until she was encouraged by her husband to start her own grooming business. She managed to build a sizeable business out of their home and maintained this service for many years before retiring for personal reasons.

Alma eventually joined New Genesis Missionary Baptist Church and served as President of Pastor's Aid, and Outreach Ministry. Having a true humanitarian spirit, Alma helped to prepare and serve food for those less fortunate, in addition to her support of several charitable organizations. She also had a great affinity for baking and was always sharing her culinary treats with friends and family.

Alma enjoyed a good movie, loved spending time with her daughters, and several friends with whom she shared a sisterly-bond; affectionately referred to (by her daughter Kneha) as the Hooligans.

“ Knea and Cybil, we will miss Mother Causey for her caring and loving personality she shared with the members of New Genesis Missionary Baptist Church. She loved God and God loved her. She is with God now preparing pound cakes and tea. May God give you peace in this time of the celebration of her life.
