March 16, 1951 - September 7, 2018

Going Home Celebration For Alma Dianne Smith:

Alma Dianne Smith was born on March 16, 1951 in Marvel, Alabama to Albert Smith and Willie Belle Smith.

Alma accepted Christ at an early age.

Alma attended H. D. Davidson High School in Centerville, Alabama for a short time before marrying.

Alma returned to school some years later and obtained her High School Diploma in 1979.

Alma attended some college and obtained her certification as a phlebotomist.

Alma was employed with Botsford Hospital, which is now known as Beaumont Farmington Hills, for 40 years where she made many loving lifelong friends. She started off as a housekeeper and worked her way up to being a Laboratory Processing Assistant.

Alma was joined in holy matrimony with Jimmy Murphy for 15 years. To this union five children were born.

Alma was a private person and considered to be a loner but she was not lonely. She enjoyed her space but she also enjoyed spending time with her grandchildren. She loved to shop, watch movies and have dinner afterwards. She especially loved her time spent with them at Kalahari Waterpark. She was always planning some kind of trip for the next year. Her happiness came from seeing and bringing joy to her grandchildren.

Alma departed this life on Friday, September 7, 2018.
