

Mrs. Alpha Estella Jordan

August 21, 1935 - January 29, 2018

A Service Of Memory Celebrating The Life Of Alpha Estella Jordan:

Alpha Estella Jordan was born on August 21, 1935 in Hamtramck Michigan, to her proud parents; Edgar and Maude Jordan. As in her name, Alpha, she was the first and the last child of that loving union. Raised in a Christian home with her parents she attended Macedonia Baptist Church and United Church of Christ in her early years. She joined People's Community Church, there she remained a devoted, faithful, caring, sharing member until her death.

Alpha attended Columbia and Wingert Elementary Schools, graduated from Northwestern High School in 1953. She attended and carried degrees from West Virginia State University (Bachelor's Degree) Michigan State University (Master's Degree) and Wayne State University (Special Education Degree).

She was employed with the Detroit Public School throughout her professional career as a teacher, as well as a guidance counselor.

Throughout her adult life Alpha served the community well. Her affiliation included, Michigan Democratic Party 13th Congressional District, AARP Detroit Chapter, St. Patrick Senior Center, NAACP, Afro-American Museum, Detroit Urban League, Detroit Historical Museum, and Detroit 300th Birthday Celebration. Alpha supported various organizations. She enjoyed traveling; domestic and international, shopping, fine arts, and reading. In her spare time she loved to take advantage of all the activities Metro Detroit had to offer, especially Downtown Detroit.

On January 29, 2018 she answered the Lord's call to offer eternal peace and rest.
