

Mrs. Alvalois Davidson-Lewis

March 6, 1927 - March 7, 2018

A Memorial Service For Alalois Davidson-Lewis:

Alvalois Davidson Lewis was born March 6, 1927 in Indianapolis, Indiana to Arlanda Eugene Davidson and Josephine Elizabeth Hill Davidson. She attended the Indianapolis Public School system and graduated from Crispus Attucks High School in 1945. She worked in health care where she was an assistant in a rehabilitation center in Detroit for 15 years until her retirement.

Alvalois married Charles P. Lewis in 1950 and they lived happily together for 55 years. She and Charles enjoyed traveling, taking vacation trips to the Bahamas, Hawaii, Las Vegas, and Alaska.

A devoted wife, Alvalois lived an adventurous life with Charles. The two of them were peas in pod, laughing, scrapping, and loving one another in their half century together. She was also a caring sister to her departed sisters Marcellana Armstrong, and Pauline Anderson, and brother, Arlanda Davidson, Jr. To her nephews and nieces, she was a loving and beloved Auntie, doing what she could to help them as they navigated their lives.

Alvalois was also an original. She was thoughtful, opinionated, and huge-hearted. She sometimes marched to the beat of a different drummer and had the courage to say and do things that the average person might not. Over the past decade she lived at Four Chaplain's Nursing Care Center where the staff adored her. They always commented on her smile and the way she treated others with respect and with positivity. She spent many of her days just joyfully singing.

Alvalois departed this life on March 7, 2018, joining her husband, Charles who passed in 2006.

“ Dear Lewis Family,

Please accept our sincere condolences over the death of your loved one. When we lose someone it is only natural to undergo a period of mourning. One thing that has helped bring myself and others a measure of relief and comfort is knowing that the suffering will end soon. In fact, one scripture reveals a promise from the Creator, “And he will wipe out every tear from their eyes, and death will be no more, neither will mourning nor outcry nor pain be anymore.” Rev 21:3,4 JW dot org
