

Mrs. Alvera Cornwall

October 30, 1948 - April 11, 2019

Her Story:

Alvera Cornwall, age 70, made her transition on April 11, 2019 at her brother, Melvin, and sister-in-law, Wanda's home surrounded by family and friends. Alvera was born to Elizabeth and Edward Jones Williams (KY) at St. James Hospital in Chicago Heights, Illinois. Alvera was the sixth of eleven children.

Alvera became the family and friends seamstress at a young age. She created her own designs for family events and occasions. She designed her own line of jewelry. After graduating from high school, Alvera attended Highland Park Community College where she received her associates degree in the sciences. Alvera went on to receive her nursing degree at the University of Detroit Mercy. She was certified as a surgical technician and pharmacist at Wayne State University.

Alvera married in 1999 to Ronaldo Cornwall. Together, they became foster parents to many children. Alvera later adopted her daughters, Kim and Joianna. Alvera was raised in the atmosphere of the Lord. She spent her life in ministry through music and as a Sunday school teacher.

Alvera was a member of Living World up until 2000, under the leadership of Pastor Thomas until 2001 when she joined Detroit World Outreach under Bishop Wallace and later Bishop Ben Gillard. Alvera served as a member of the Season Saints Choir under the leadership of Pastor Shirley McClelland.
