

Mr. Alvin Luther Bibbs, Sr.

August 24, 1956 - February 23, 2017

The Life And Legacy Of Alvin Luther Bibbs, Sr.:

Alvin Luther Bibbs Sr. was born on August 24, 1956 to Ed and Mary Bibbs who preceded him in death as well as his siblings Eddy Mae Bibbs, James T. Moore Sr. (Frances), Frank B. Moore, Jay H. Bibbs and Sharon V. Bibbs-Weems.

He graduated from Kil Michael High School in Winona, MS. In 1976, Alvin moved to Detroit, Michigan. He first began working for Boron gas station and then retired from Chrysler Corporation after 31 years of service. In 1977, he met the love of his life Patricia Ann Keyes. Three years later they married and started a beautiful life together. To this union, three sons were born. Alvin Jr., Keith (who preceded him in death) and Jay. Anyone who knew Alvin knew how strong his love was for his wife Pat. She was his soulmate and teammate. This love was shown daily and will always be everlasting.

'Square', 'Pops', 'A-Train', and 'Silverback' were all nicknames family and friends referred to him as. Alvin was a very hardworking man who provided not only for his own family, but many others as well. He was a positive role model, great mentor, mechanic, and an amazing cook. He enjoyed spending time with his friends, especially 'The Good Old Boys' of Chrysler. He always looked forward to Thursday, when they would meet and play cards. His other hobbies included traveling, bowling, shooting pool and fishing. He was also a sports fanatic. After shooting pool and fishing he could often be found riding around town in his pride and joy, his 1974 Lincoln Mark IV.

Alvin Sr. was called home on February 23, 2017.
