

Mr. Alvin Clayton Foster

October 31, 1956 - November 2, 2018

The Homegoing of Alvin Clayton Foster:

Alvin Clayton Foster was born in Detroit, MI on October 31, 1956, the seventh child of Herman and Curley Mae Foster. Alvin spent most of his youth at Clinton St. Greater Bethlehem Temple on West Chicago Blvd. in Detroit, MI.

Alvin was baptized at an early age. Alvin went to Central High School. He went to work for Redstone Architects in Detroit where he learned the trade. Daniel Redstone took Alvin under his wing, and Alvin stayed until present day.

During his young years, Alvin got into music. He started out with rock and roll, playing drums, giging when he could. Alvin started playing the guitar later. Alvin was in numerous bands, he even formed a band with friends in the 80s.

Alvin later went into sound engineering and started his own business. Alvin did sound for everyone, your greats, but to him you were all greats. Al's favorite musician was Allan Holdsworth, who he had the honor of running sound for at the Jazz Cafe in the Music Hall.

Alvin C. Foster met Marian L. Haskins in 1982, they married on December 16, 1989 in Detroit, MI.

Alvin adored all of his dogs past and present, and he also had a love for people. Alvin is special that's why, you all were his life.
