“ Although I did not make it to the service I truly am appreciative 2 this man. He gave selflessly to my daughter and all the kids that he came in contact with. He placed a basketball in my daughter's hand when she was in third grade. Teairra is now 28 years old and her and mr. Rolle were just as close as they were when she was in third grade. I appreciate this man. He was such an amazing spirit. And he loved the children with everything he had in him. You will truly be missed

“ My family and I are saddened to hear about Mr. Rollie's passing. I personally will always remember his sense of humor and his taking great care of his family. I also remember him driving us to Washington DC on many of our trips. Much Love from the Mays and Goldsby families. We are praying for you and wish that we could be there with you.
