“ *Mom... You were the epitome of a strong, intelligent and nurturing black woman. Your presence magnified the ambiance of any room. I appreciate and value all that you've taught me. You were not an ordinary individual and you were loving to everyone that you encountered. I will miss your late night conversations, discussions of dreams and aspirations, stories of your life experiences, humor quick wit, love for music, swapping recipes and frankly "your voice!" I love you and glad that you no longer have to struggle with Multiple Sclerosis or life's setbacks. Rest In Paradise knowing that you your life's accomplishments were Well Done!
With Love and Eternal Gratitude,
Your daughter, Muneerah L. Rashid*
