

Mr. Amos Bouyer, Jr.

September 11, 1940 - November 18, 2018

His Story:

Amos Bouyer, Jr. was born on September 11, 1940 in George Town, Georgia to the late Amon and Tenner Kingsley Bouyer. Amos had three brothers, Willie, Claude and James Bouyer who preceded him in death.

He accepted Christ at an early age.

Amos was strong willed, and known to be stubborn, but he was a very caring person who loved his children and his family very much! He enjoyed life and was fun to be around, sometimes considered the life of the party. Amos loved hunting and went up North to his cabin several times during the year, hunting whatever was in season at the time; he loved to go fishing and taking long walks in nature. He drove everywhere he went no matter the distance and always had his CB Radio on so that he wouldn't miss anything. He loved working on cars, he enjoyed watching wrestling matches and he loved his westerns. Known for his western attire (hat, jeans and cowboy boots) he came to be known as "Cowboy." He worked in construction and belonged to the Construction Laborers' Local Union 355. He also worked for the Battle Creek Water Company from which he retired.

“ *I know Amos,
My Dad and Amon are cousins. I wish that I would have known about his passing. I would have been there. Someone reply to my massage, I would appreciate it.
Sorry about the lost.
May the LORD, cover the entire family.*
