

Mrs. Andgree Virginia Snodgrass

May 17, 1936 - April 23, 2013

Ardgree Virginia Belk was born on May 17, 1936 in Lancaster, South Carolina to Waddie and Annie Bell Belk. She was one of nine children. Ardgree joined New Hope AME Zion Church at an early age. She moved to Detroit, Michigan where she met and married Welzie Snodgrass on January 5, 1957. Ardgree and Welzie were blessed with three children, Griffith, Welzie Jr., who preceded her in death, and Dwight.

Ardgree was employed for many years in the Detroit Public School system. She also worked at DTE Energy Company for six years. She was a loving wife and devoted mother to her children. She was also a wonderful grandma who took such pleasure in spoiling her grandchildren. In addition to spending time with her family, Ardgree enjoyed listening to music, dancing, traveling, cooking and watching her favorite television programs. She loved to host her family and extended family for Sunday dinners, where there was plenty of food, laughter and good company. Ardgree made everyone feel welcome.
