

Mr. Andre Corbin

November 13, 1954 - April 27, 2024

In Loving Memory Of

Andre Lamar Corbin was born on Saturday, November 13, 1954, to the union of James Corbin and Lola Mae Reed Ellington Corbin. Andre was the ninth of eleven children. Our Mother often referred to him as her “sweet, kind, gentle son”.

Andre was educated in the Detroit Public School System. Andre was baptized at the age of 12, at Peoples Community Church, Pastor Carlyle Fielding Stewart Sr.

Andre began his work career at Budd Wheel Company as a Machine Operator. He later worked for Kroger in the meat department his job was Butcher/Meat Cutter, Andre married his beautiful wife, Glynis Pryor on July 18, 1998. They have one son, Rafeal, 4 grandchildren; Dyven, C’Ara, Emmanuel and Elijah

Andre was a loving husband, father, grandfather, brother, uncle, friend. He was loved, sometimes it was not reciprocated, but it never stopped him from lending a helping hand.

If you knew him, you would have known someone who loved unconditionally. Andre loved to dance, he loved traveling, he enjoyed family gatherings, he loved to laugh and crack jokes. He had a memory like an elephant, he never met a stranger, and he never forgot you.

Andre’s legacy lives on in the many lives he touched, his life was a blessing, his memory a treasure.

Andre was preceded in death by his parents: James and Lola Corbin, his brothers: William Ellington, Daniel Ellington, Broderick Corbin and Carlton Corbin, sister Delores Tate; Sibling in laws: Anita Banks, Marylyn Merriweather and Marcus Pryor.

Andre leaves to cherish his memory: his wife Glynis, his son Rafeal, grandchildren: Dyven, C'Ara, Emmanuel and Elijah. Siblings: Brenda Wallace, Beverly Ellington, Danice (Howard) Taylor, Eleanor Cummings, Felton (GiGi) Ellington, James Corbin, Andrea Corbin, Debra Ayler. Sibling-in-laws: Diane Goolsby, George (Tina) Pryor Sr., Dana Pryor, Michael (Lucinda) Pryor, Alicia Thomas, Kenneth Merriweather, Beverly Wilks and Anthony Young. Aunts Michelene Childs, and Joyce Holland (Barry) Jones; a host of nieces, nephews, cousins and friends. A loving godmother, Gail Warren.
