

Mr. AnDre' Lamar Trent

July 26, 1977 - November 7, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Andre' Lamar Trent:

Mr. Andre' Lamar Trent was born on July 26, 1977 in Detroit, Michigan to John and Shirley Trent. He was the second born of four children.

He was educated in the Detroit Public Schools attending, Gardner Elementary, Ann Arbor Trail Middle School; graduating from Frank Cody High in 1995. He enjoyed the time spent as a drummer in the Ann Arbor Trail Middle School Band. While attending Cody, he assisted his teacher in the evening tutoring other students at Breithaupt Vocational Career Center where he studied Information Technology. He enjoyed and excelled in this field of study, which led to his career of 20 years at AT&T.

AnDre' accepted Christ and on May 6, 1990 at the age of twelve he was baptized at True Love Missionary Baptist Church. He served as a member of the Junior Laymen.

He was a very active youth, participating on baseball and basketball teams with the Barney McCosky Little League. He also played football with the Detroit PAL Youth Football League on the Detroit Stars team.

AnDre' was a true fan of the Detroit Lions, optimistically believing that they could actually win the Super Bowl. He enjoyed such activities as Fantasy

Football, video games and watching television shows; especially the Walking Dead and Game of Thrones; so much so that he held weekly gatherings for family and friends at his home. He was a gadget man who family called a "Tech Nerd." Being a man of style he had a thing for shoes. He was meticulous in selecting his attire for the day; choosing three outfits before settling on his final decision.

AnDre' was known for his cool demeanor, as the life of the party, and for his mischievous sense of humor. He was a well respected guy who had a genuine love for people and a kind open heart. He could fill a room with laughter with his incredible one-liner jokes. And, his infectious laugh always brought joy to everyone around him.

AnDre' made his transition from this life to spend eternity with Christ on Saturday, November 7, 2015 at 9:25pm.

“ Color can influence emotions. I chose to light a yellow candle to honor your memory because it symbolizes joy and/or happiness. When I look back on life, my childhood on Mansfield, I have nothing but fond memories. My life was so much better because you and your siblings were apart of it. I will always remember your smile, laughter, and friendship. You touched everyone who knew you in a special way. I pray for peace upon your family. I know you will watch over them and are never far away. Rest easy Dre.
