“ I will miss my cousin Andre, who was like a brother I never had. He would tell funny stories, had an interest in the martial arts, cars, music, history and would always be involved in issues surrounding his family. I've know Andre since we were kids when he and his father would come for visits to New Jersey from Detroit. In 1986 he came to NJ to stay with his grandmother and we grew closer. He moved back to Detroit in 2013 to care for his ailing father, but was always a phone call away. Following in his father's footsteps he joined the church and he finally accomplished his dream of getting married to his special lady.

I will never forget you, Andre Washington. May you forever rest with God.
