I watched you grow from a little boy to a young man. I have so many memories of you playing with all of the Campbell street kids, going to church with me and my family, the soccer and basketball games, and all of the grown-ups vs kids water fights in the summer. My family and I will always remember your smile and how respectful you were to us. I am so grateful that the last time I saw you we told each other "Love You" and hugged. Our Lord has you in His hands now. Rest in peace NuNu. You will be greatly missed and always loved by us.
