

Mrs. Ann Juanita Stamps

September 3, 1939 - July 23, 2018

Ann Juanita Stamps was born on September 3, 1939 in Campobello, South Carolina to the late Mark B. Hargro 'M B' and Helen Ruth Hargro "Hett."

Ann was the eldest of three children, Roger 'Butch' Hargro (who preceded her in death) and Michael Hargro.

Ann moved to Detroit MI, in 1943 and was educated in the Detroit Public School system.

Ann accepted Christ at an early age and united with Twelfth Street Missionary Baptist Church. She was also a member of Friendship Baptist Church and Greater St. Mark Missionary Baptist Church where she served as a nurse.

Ann loved her family. Her Auntie Clara, Auntie Willie Mae, Auntie Inez, Uncle Henry 'Buddy,' Uncle Ralph 'Ray' and Cousins Earline, Sarah, Juanita and Sunny were very special to her. Ann was a loving big sister to her brothers who ate at her home often. Mike lived with his big sister off and on from the age of thirteen.

He often told her she was old because her kids called her Mama. From that point on, Ann wanted to just be called "Ann."

Ann was employed as a housekeeper in the medical field where she later retired. In 1959, Ann met, worked with and married her soulmate of 47 years Johnnie Pete Stamps (who preceded her in death). To this union six children were born. Yvonne Marie Redd preceded her in death.

Ann enjoyed spending time knitting and playing cards. Ann enjoyed working with the children after her retirement. She worked as the Lunchroom Attendant and Crossing Guard at Parkman Elementary School in Detroit, MI. It didn't take much to make Ann happy, just the simple things in life like spending time with her grandchildren and great-grandchildren. Ann's best days were spent taking care of her Father, Mother, Husband and others until her health failed. Ann would still make sure Jerome had everything he needed until her death. When Jerome would feed her, she would try to feed him. On July 23, 2018, God whispered to Ann, it's time to come home.
