

Mrs. Anna Laura Jackson

April 26, 1939 - July 5, 2022

In Loving Memory Of

An only child, Anna Laura Jackson was born in Halls, Tennessee to Margaret and Nathaniel Green. After a brief stay in New York with her mother, around the age of eight, she settled in Detroit with her father and stepmother, Rebecca Green.

After graduating from Central High School, Anna married Donald Hill until his death. This union produced two children. She was subsequently married to C. W. Jackson for 23 years. For several years, Anna worked in Hudson's gift-wrapping department. She eventually secured a job at Ford Motor Company. She was ambitious and dedicated attaining management status while working at the Wixom and Wayne assembly plants for 37 years.

Meanwhile, she renewed her relationship with God and joined Northwest Unity Baptist Church for several years. Later she joined True Love Missionary Baptist Church and became very active. She sang in the choir, was a member of the senior usher board and a Divine Mother of favor.

Anna was a proud woman. She insisted on having it "alltogether" when she went to various functions-especially at church.

She was obsessed with plants and flowers. During summer months, she could often be found on her knees in the yard digging in flower beds. One of her guilty pleasures was spending Saturdays watching westerns on TV. She belonged to Eastern Star and she was a member of the "The Fantastic 8" social club for 35 years.

Whether she was "Big Mama," "AJ," "Mac," "Auntie," "Mama," "Nana," or "Grandma," she loved and cherished her family and was fiercely supportive when necessary. She will be lovingly remembered by: children, Stephanie and Philip, her sister-in-law, Elaine Lewis; grandchildren, Erica, Jamie, and Donald; extended family and dear friends, BFF Wynona Williams, Josie Thompson, Creola Bonom, and Mary Cobb.
