“ Though I wasn't as well acquainted with Aunt Annette, my sister and I often fondly recalled with laughter her sisterhood with our mother. My family will be forever grateful for the selfless love, companionship, friendship and loyalty she extended to our mother, and support for our family. It was a true testament of unconditional love, which she undoubtedly gave of herself to many others. Sending condolences to her family and prayers for comfort.

“ God is so good. To the family, friends, and the Detroit Police Department family: You have my deepest condolences. I just found out about Annette's final chapter through my cousins Maurice and Peaches Lewis. I am so sorry for your loss, but you know God knows what God's doing. She will always be in your hearts and in your memories. I asked God to give you the peace and understanding that only God can give. Peace.

“ I'm still in shock. Sister Annette was a special person whom I shared many laughs and heartfelt conversations. She loved the Lord and her family. She is free in glory. Family may you have the peace of God to surpass all understanding.
