November 14, 1938 - April 13, 2018

Celebrating The Life Of Annie Olivia Bishop:

Annie Olivia Bishop was born on November 14, 1938 in Weldon, North Carolina to the late Olivia an Jonas Baker. Annie was educated in the Weldon Public Schools system, graduated, and continued her education later in life.

Annie confessed “Jesus Christ” as her personal savior early in life.

Annie was joined in holy matrimony to James T. Bishop for 32 years until his passing in November 1988. To this union, eight children were born.

Annie began her career as a clerical worker with the city of Detroit. Throughout her more than 30 years of service, she held many positions, including an employee for the Lionel Train Company, Lear Seating Corporation, and ending her working career with Ford Motor Company in St. Paul, Minnesota.

Mama led an active and full life and was a devoted mother. She was loving and caring to her friends and family, always provided encouragement to everyone, and she always “expressed her opinion” whether you liked it or not. Our mother was smart, funny, and witty. Her beautiful personality and abiding faith in God granted her the ability to smooth out family problems. Mama loved her old western movies, Family Feud, The Price is Right, her soap operas, and she especially loved gossiping on the phone with her sisters.

Annie O. Bishop was a wonderful and beloved mother, grandmother, sister, and aunt. She had a long and joyful life and will live forever in our hearts and minds.

Annie departed this life on April 13, 2018.
