“ Annie's joy remains. They say big things come in small packages. I say Annie is a giant yesterday and in our memories. When I think of her I picture a room full of kids surrounding her laughing and Aunt Annie laughing with us. I was one of those kids. Today as a mom I keep a piece of you with me Annie, I keep your joy and pass it along. I see your kids have passed it along too. Sidebar: Peach cobbler... 'nuff said! May the grace of God comfort your children and grandchildren and Loretta as you rest peacefully in the arms of the Most High. Amen Amen.

“ As a youth My sister and I would spend our summer over Uncle Ed and Annie's house. Auntie would always go shopping and would have me tag along to help care her bags. In the process I always got something nice and a couple coins . She was a great cook and I picked up a few tip on cooking greens,mac&chesse ,dressing and fried chicken . Thanksgiving and Christmas was a big deal at the cooper's we broke bread and enjoyed each other company. Memories of time pass with Annie Pearl she would always say lil Cadillac and start laughing . I will always cherish our time together and memories forever more .

Your Nephew Jerome, Love You Annie Pearl !
