

Mrs. Annie Mord Farr

October 10, 1931 - June 16, 2016

Her Story:

Annie Mord Hendrix was born in Covington, Georgia on October 10, 1931 to Charlie Hendrix and Jamie Grier. Annie accepted Christ at an early age. Annie attended Georgia Public schools. Annie always put her family first from the time she was a young child, she sacrificed her education to help provide for her family.

Annie was employed by American Linen for 45 years as an Apron Finisher, she was also employed by Briggs Building Services and American House Stone for 6 years. At 75 years old Annie decided it was finally time to retire and enjoy time with her daughter, her home and to just enjoy life.

Early in life Annie met Andrew Cobb and in this union she had one son Larry Hendrix. She was joined in holy matrimony with William Arthur Farr for a number of years. To this union one child was born Roxiann Hendrix.

Annie's favorite thing to do was to cook fried chicken and to spend time with her family. She especially enjoyed Sunday dinners. Her all time favorite pastimes were dancing and blues music.

Annie departed this life on June 16, 2016.

Cemetery Details

White Chapel Cemetery

621 W. Long Lake Rd.
Troy, MI 48098

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Annie Mord Farr

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ Peaceful White Lilies Basket was purchased for the family of Mrs. Annie Mord Farr.

June 23, 2016 at 11:07 AM