

Mrs. Annie Ruth Freeman

May 9, 1931 - August 25, 2015

Celebrating The Life Of Annie Ruth Freeman:

Annie Ruth Freeman was born May 9, 1931 in Atlanta, Georgia to the late Norman and Jessie Schell. She was very affectionately known as RUTH. She accepted Christ at an early age, attending Born To Win Ministries.

Ruth was educated in the Detroit Public School System. She was very smart and sure to always stay several steps ahead of the rest, graduating from high school at the age of 16. After high school Ruth went on to study Cosmetology. After being a hairstylist for several years she decided to seek further employment and also returned to college at WCCC for Journalism.

Ruth was employed with the United States Postal Services for 30 years as one of their best and dedicated supervisors until her retirement in November 1989.

She was joined in holy matrimony with Cicero G. Freeman until his death. To this union two children were born Kim Freeman and Derrick "Ricky" Freeman.

Ruth had a love for all sports and was quite competitive if pushed (Smiling), but her favorite sport of them all was golf. Ruth won several trophies, awards and even cash prizes on the golf course. She was even part of the foundation of one of the first African American Woman Golf Leagues "The Tri Par Golferettes.” Some say that she was nothing short of being a professional golfer.

Ruth had many hobbies, sports being one of them. She always stayed busy working with Olympia Entertainment for the Detroit Tigers, Joe Louis Arena, The Fox Theater and the Palace of Auburn Hills and she would be sure to tell you she did so out of pure enjoyment.

Ruth was simply a class act. As a young lady if you wanted to know what class looked like, talked like and acted like right next to the definition was a picture of Ruth. She had passion for singing and a voice like an angel. All the way through her last days singing songs of her favorites Sarah Vaughn and Billy Holiday just to name a few.

Ruth departed this life on August 25, 2015 at 3:30 P.M.

Cemetery Details

Woodlawn Cemetery

19975 Woodward Ave.
Detroit, MI 48203

Tribute Wall

“ Mrs. Annie Ruth Freeman

---

January 21, 2023 at 09:34 PM

“ A Message Of Sympathy For Your Family : May these few words of sympathy help at least in part, to ease the burden that you bear and the sadness in your heart....Thinking Of You At This Sad Time. The Bible says at Acts. 24:15; that God promise to resurrect our loved one, a God that does not lie assures us of this hope.Titus.1:2.

---

p.smith - August 29, 2015 at 12:52 PM