

Mrs. Annie Lillian Harris

April 14, 1928 - November 12, 2016

In Celebration and Loving Remembrance Of Annie Lillian Harris

Today we gather to celebrate the life of Annie Lillian Harris who has entered into eternal life with her God. Lillian Harris was born April 14, 1928 to the late Ed and Maggie Mays in Atlanta, Georgia.

Lillian's three sisters and one brother preceded her in death. She married the love of her life, the late Charles Harris, and together they raised two lovely daughters, Barbara Davis and the late Gwendolyn Mays.

Lillian was a devoted member of the True Love Missionary Baptist Church, where she worshipped and praised God. She was a faithful member of the Chancel Choir, Senior Choir and Adult Sunday School, serving faithfully until her illness prevented her from doing so.

Lillian worked for Cass Cleaners and retired after 25 years of service. She was also a longtime member of the Ohio Street Block Club.

Lillian understood and demonstrated the value of family, community involvement and spiritual growth by touching the lives of everyone she came in contact with. She really enjoyed and committed herself to helping others.

Lillian loved flowers and her favorite hobby was taking pictures of herself and others. She was also an avid reader and really enjoyed baking pound cakes for everyone.

Lillian had many talents, including acting. She portrayed her acting skills, as Nadine, in the O.Z. production of "The Scheme of Ma Josie", at Wayne County Community College in 1999.
