“ John, my heart goes out to you and your family. I offer my sincere condolences to you and your family at this time. You are all in my prayers. I know all too well what it feels like to lose a loved one so near and dear to your heart. As it has only been a year since the passing of my Mother. She was my rock, the patriarch of the family. I know that this is a very sad time. Celebrate her life. As you recall the many happy memories that you have shared over the years, hold on to your faith. God will get you through it. In time those tears will turn into smiles and even laughter as you look at a photo or just think of something funny she said or did, or just a memory of a good time you shared together. I know this to be true. Trust in the Lord, He will give you strength to endure all that stands before you. Lean on Him. He will hold you together. I know that there are no words that can adequately offer you the comfort you need at this time. So I am sending my most sincere and heartfelt hugs your way to you and your family. As you were there to support me during the loss of my Mother, please know that I am here for you. If you need anything, just ask. Prayers going up for you and your loved ones. Seriously, if you just need a smiling face or a hearty laugh, I will deliver. Praise God for you and your Mother. You are the example of a job well done. I say that because you are the reflection and result of a loving, caring, and righteous Mother. I can tell. Your Mother is smiling right now and God is saying Well Done! Hugging you from afar right now!
