“ My prayers are with the family of Mrs. Annie Pearl Jones. Growing up, she was referred to as Ms. Jones and Mama Jones to those of us that lived on Abington. She and her late husband Milton gave me the nickname "Sugar Bear" as a toddler. Ms. Jones was known for sitting on her front porch and entertaining neighbors and watching after the neighborhood children. She was also known for making the best fried corn and potato salad. She will be missed by so many.

May the Lord be with the family and friends of Ms. Jones, as she has made her transition from labor to reward. Rest in Heaven Ms. Jones. Praying for comfort and peace in the days ahead.
