Going Home Celebration For Annie Ruth Partee:

Annie Ruth Partee, a mother, daughter, sister, aunt, and grandmother was born March 26, 1948 in Madison, Mississippi. She departed peacefully November 26, 2014 at her resident in Southgate, Michigan.

Annie accepted Christ at an early age.

Annie attended North Western High School in Detroit where she graduated in 1967. Soon after graduation she worked for the Board of Education and then began her career at Chrysler where she retired in 1996. Annie loved to travel and enjoyed the Casino's. Her favorite pass time was playing cards with her girlfriends, Joyce, Sonny, Marva, Ann, Pat, Minnie, and Delores.

Annie was truly a fighter! So many times her health would try to overpower her and she fought back, surprising her Dr.'s and family.

Annie was loved by so many, she never met a stranger.

Annie Will Be Missed!!!

I will forever love you Mama "Poocat"

“ I share my condolences and prayers to the family. I remember seeing the pictures of Auntie Annie all dressed up in short skirts with Auntie Nita and friends and how we had get togethers so the grown folk partied and all the kids played in the basement at grandma Lula B's. She was a kind hearted and wonderful woman. The Watson family sends our love.
