“ I'm going to miss her the most, because when i needed someone to pray for me or with me she was there. I'm going to miss our talks about how our children were doing and how proud she was of them. I miss her asking me what was wrong with her car and if i didn't know, she would said get our husband to come look at it. and asking me what i was going to have for lunch she would call it "LURNCH". and her beautiful smile and her telling me to look out for her she going to take her a smoke.
